School Annual Programme Plan, 2020-2021

I. Situational Analysis

Strengths – Internal Factors	Weaknesses – Internal Factors
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. There is close partnership among the stakeholders. Parents appreciate what the school does for their children; the alumni, teachers and students have a strong sense of belonging.</li><li>2. Students are receptive to advice and guidance. They can find strong peer support. Senior students managed to play a leading role in both the academic and non-academic aspects.</li><li>3. Experienced teachers enhance professional development in different aspects.</li><li>4. There is close partnership with Big Education Platform and HK Policy Research Institute.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Many students lack family support and are deficient of social and cultural capital.</li><li>2. Students are passive and lack of self-regulated skills.</li><li>3. Students lack experience on applying different knowledges or skills to a real-life situation.</li><li>4. Both junior and senior students are surface learners. Usually students feel hard to adapt learning stages from P6 to S1 and S3 to S4.</li><li>5. Students are lack of learning strategies and IT skills.</li><li>6. Low achievers are lack of confidence.</li><li>7. The learning diversity during the online lesson become wider.</li></ol>
Opportunities – External Factors	Threats – External Factors
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The reforms in HK on curriculum and assessment help to reinforce the use of language, the development of communication skills, critical thinking and power of analysis, IT, metacognition and catering for learner diversity.</li><li>2. Government provide Community Care Fund to develop BYOD.</li><li>3. EDB provide LWL grants to develop LWL.</li><li>4. There is school-based support from various external professional bodies.</li><li>5. Stakeholders' greater demand of life-wide learning activities for students' whole-person development facilitates reform and refinement of existing school-based curriculum and various learning activities.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Misuse of and distraction from electronic gadgets interferes with students' study and socialization.</li><li>2. The school professional decision may be challenged by stakeholders and external parties under the rapid changing political environment.</li><li>3. Class suspension due to social issue or Covid-19 affects general practices in school significantly.</li></ol>
